History

You've made a living serving in foreign wars. It's been a decent life, and you've seen a lot more of the world than you might have if you had stuck around the family farm. Asia, Africa, South America. If there has been a continent at war in the last 15 years, you've been there lobbing rounds. It's not as if you like the thought of killing, but if someone is going to be making a profit off of war, you might as well be there, putting the money to good use.

It came as a surprise when Uncle Aaron managed to track you down. He had a job for the black sheep of the family and wanted to know if you were interested. You'd never been in Egypt before, but you've always wanted to see the pyramids ...
